Pray for Us this Week

This coming week has Jeana going one way and me going another. Yet, on Thursday we will both be in the Dominican Republic before our return home on Saturday. Please pray for us.

Jeana will leave tomorrow for the Dominican Republic. She will be speaking and ministering through local churches. Interestingly, Carla Arriola (Julio's wife), will be her interpreter. Therefore, she and Jeana will have a great journey ministering together to the people of the Dominican Republic.

I leave tomorrow for Orlando, Florida. After preaching twice today, I will speak twice on Tuesday in Orlando at a major international conference centered around the Great Commission. Then I will speak there again on Wednesday night. On Thursday, I will fly from Orlando into the Dominican Republic. I will preach on Thursday night and twice on Friday at their major national convention for church leaders. Then, Jeana and I will return home on Saturday afternoon in order to be here on Sunday morning.

As you pray for us, pray for this next Sunday. By the time I see you next Sunday, I will have preached at least eight times. Therefore, after I speak next Sunday, I will have preached at least ten times in eight days. Please pray for me physically, spiritually, and emotionally as I minister this week.

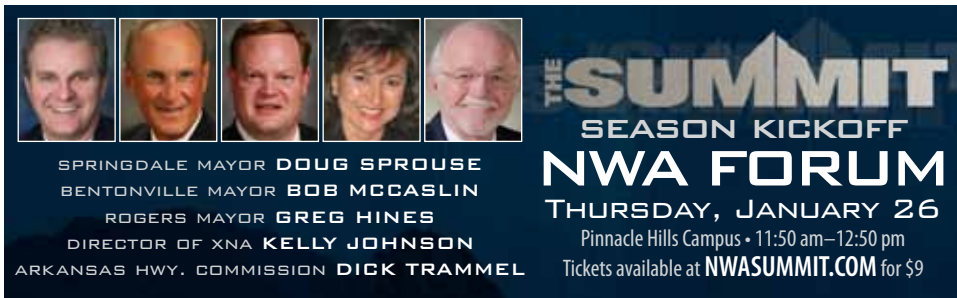

See you next Sunday. Invite others to join us. And oh yes, there's hope!
