COMPASSION CONVICTION COURAGE

My Dear People

What a joy it is to be a part of a Great Commission Church! Our church is committed to telling every person in the world about Jesus Christ and making disciples of all the nations. We are committed to disciple making, planting churches, and reaching the people groups all over the world. Right here in Northwest Arkansas, we begin this commitment, carrying it into our great nation of America, and yes, around the world.

Today I will be speaking on, "There's Hope for Northwest Arkansas!" I believe with all of my heart and life that there is hope for our great region. The business, economics, and social future of our region are all superb, but the prospect for our entire region looks even better when we know Christ is our greatest hope! Nothing, I mean nothing, improves our prospect for the future any more than the Lord.

Jeana and I have just returned from the Dominican Republic. Our investment in people, church leaders, and many churches in that nation have once again shown the enormous influence of this ministry. You are a great people and a great church. Don't put up with anyone telling you anything else. No, Cross Church is not perfect, but it's not about being perfect – it's about worshipping and serving the only One who is! Jesus is our Hope, our only Hope!

Weekly, you make a personal decision related to this ministry. You decide:

- Will I prioritize my life to worship with God's people?
- Will I prioritize my schedule to serve others through Cross Church?
- Will I prioritize my finances in order to honor the Lord with the first-tenth?
- Will I prioritize my family to participate with my fellowship to finish the task of reaching the nations?

Yes, you make at least this many decisions weekly regarding your faith walk. Make them responsibly to God's glory!

Last Sunday, Jeana and I had a conversation about why we believe there is hope for marriage and family. It was a transparent and authentic moment, where we just responded from our hearts to the questions asked of us. If you missed last Sunday, watch it at crosschurch.com/media. Share this link with many people across the world. Together, let's help families! We believe there is hope for the family.

Thank you, dear people of God. I love you and count it a high privilege and responsibility to serve the Lord with you.
